The Deputy Attorney General,
Government Buildings,
EDMONTON, Alberta.

Dear Sir:

Re: Mike Andrushko, of Roycroft, Alberta.

I allege that the above man stole four horses, a plow, a Six Horse Equalizer, some grain and money which I had loaned him, from me in the year 1928, when I was living at Roycroft. I reported the matter to the police at Spirit River but they refused to lay an Information at the time. They sent me to see Mr. Lawlor, a lawyer at Grande Prairie. Mr. Lawlor asked me for $50.00 to start a Civil Action. I had no money at the time to start a Civil Action, so Mr. Lawlor advised me to go and see Mr. Paterson, also a lawyer. I left some Grocery Bills with Mr. Paterson to collect, and he asked me for $50.00, also, and he said he would not take Action against this man. I then asked him to give me back the Grocery Bills, but he said I had not left them with him and he refused to give them back to me.

The R. C. M. P. in Edmonton have statements made by Mike Andrushko, the man whom I claim stole my horses, etc. and also from the man who sold me the horses, a Mr. A. Mody, but they refuse to let me see the statements. I think I should be entitled to see these Statements.

Yours truly,

JOHN YAREMKO.

P.S. Would you be willing to grant Warrant in this case, and what would it cost?

EDMONTON, October 14, 1937.

Dear Sir:

I refer to your letter of October 9th and regret that owing to the time which has elapsed, namely nine years since this alleged offence was committed, and also the fact that you had the benefit of the advice of two lawyers, namely Mr. Lawlor and Mr. Paterson, it is now too late for any Government Department to be of any assistance to you.

Yours truly,

J. W. McClelland
Solicitor, Attorney
General's Department.
